Talent Statement Type [Singular] Personal Summary

During my internship at Michelin, I gained hands-on experience in the wheel manufacturing process, including machine technologies, sensors, and power systems. I developed a strong understanding of safety protocols and contributed to project management activities, such as planning, scheduling, and coordinating tasks to ensure timely and efficient project execution. Additionally, I was involved in documentation practices, tracking progress, and communicating project updates to stakeholders. This experience allowed me to apply project management principles in a real-world setting and provided a solid foundation for my future career in the field.
